How to Read This Report

कर्मण्येवाधिकारस्ते मा फलेषु कदाचन ।
मा कर्मफलहेतुर्भूर्मा ते सङ्गोऽस्त्वकर्मणि ॥

BHAGAVAD GITA 2.47

Your claim is on the work alone, not on its fruits. Do not let the fruits be your motive, and do not cling to doing nothing.

What this report does, and what it does not

This report reads your birth chart for work: the kinds of work it leans to, the roads it favours and the months that suit each decision. Every reading names the chart facts it rests on, so you can check it rather than take it on faith. It speaks of tendencies, not certainties: it does not promise a job, a selection, a visa or a gain, and it does not replace career counselling. The choices, and the effort behind them, remain yours.

How each chapter is built

- The short answer: the boxed line at the top of each chapter, with a sentence on how it is worked out.
- The reading: what each finding means for your work, one topic at a time.
- Basis: the chart facts under each reading, listed so that every claim can be checked against your chart.
- Modern reading and PanchangBodh's method: these labels mark where a classical rule ends and an interpretation or a weighting of ours begins.
- The close: one practical step to take from the chapter.

One legend for the whole report

	Decision months (chapter 22): green to act, amber to prepare, red to hold.
	Scores out of 100 read in three bands: low below 35, middle 35 to 59, high 60 and up. A score describes this chart only; it is not compared with anyone else's.
3 methods agree	3 methods agree: how many of the five methods (birth chart, D10, Jaimini, Ashtakavarga and Bhrigu Nandi Nadi) back a score. The more of them agree, the firmer the score.
● ○ –	In the methods table, a filled dot means a rule of that method is met, an open dot that its rules were read and none is met, and a dash that the road has no rule from that method.
▼	In every chart, ▼ marks house 1. The shaded house is the one the page reads, and the hatched house holds that house's lord.
| now	On the timelines, the line marked now is the report date; the years ahead run to its right.

CHAPTER 2 · FOUNDATIONS OF THE BIRTH CHART

Three Lenses on the Tenth House

THE SHORT ANSWER

Your career is read first from the Moon, the strongest of the three reference planets in your chart.

Brihat Jataka reads a career from three starting points: the 10th house counted from the lagna, from the Moon and from the Sun. Each is a lens on the same working life. The lens whose reference planet is strongest leads the reading; the other two add colour and confirmation.

From the lagna · ▼ marks house 1

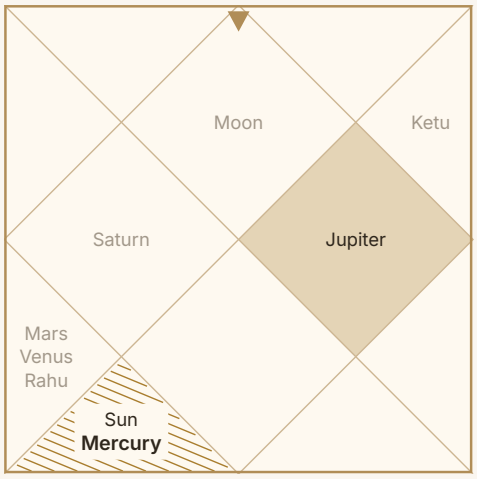

10th house · the 10th from the lagna · Scorpio · no planet in it · its owner Mars — in the 12th

From the lagna

Counted from the lagna, the 10th house falls in Scorpio and holds no planet, so its owner Mars carries this lens: where that planet sits and how strong it is decide what this view shows.

BASIS

- Scorpio on the 10th house
- no planet in the 10th house
- the 10th lord is Mars

From the Moon · ▼ marks house 1

10th house · the 10th from the Moon · Gemini · its owner Mercury — in the 6th

From the Moon

Primary lens

From the Moon, the 10th is Gemini, occupied by Jupiter, with Mercury as its owner. Here the work is seen through temperament and public dealing.

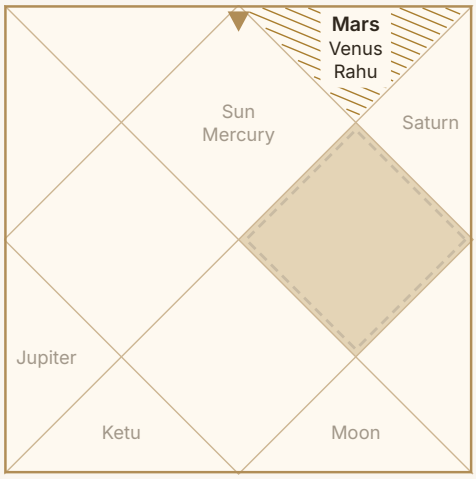

Counted from the Moon, Mercury sits in the 6th house, so this lens sees work drawn towards service, competition, health, law and the solving of daily problems.

The Moon outweighs the lagna lord and the Sun in strength, so the houses counted from the Moon are the ones this report reads first.

The Moon is the mind and the public, so this lens favours work that engages people and that you can feel settled in, rather than work chosen for status alone.

BASIS

- 10th sign from the Moon: Gemini
- planets in the 10th from the Moon: Jupiter
- 10th lord from the Moon: Mercury
- primary lens: from the Moon

From the Sun · ▼ marks house 1

10th house · the 10th from the Sun · Scorpio · no planet in it · its owner Mars — in the 12th

From the Sun

From the Sun, the 10th is Scorpio with no planet in it; Mars, its owner, carries the Sun's view of standing and rank in your work.

Counted from the Sun, Mars sits in the 12th house, so this lens sees work drawn towards foreign lands, institutions behind the scenes, hospitals, retreats and expenses.

BASIS

- 10th sign from the Sun: Scorpio
- planets in the 10th from the Sun: none
- 10th lord from the Sun: Mars

Planets that more than one lens sees

No planet reaches the 10th in more than one lens, so each view stands on its own; the primary lens carries more of the reading.

BASIS

- planets tied to the 10th in two or more lenses: none

Use the leading lens to choose direction and the other two to check it. Agreement between lenses is the strongest signal a birth chart gives about work.

CHAPTER 14 · DECISIONS

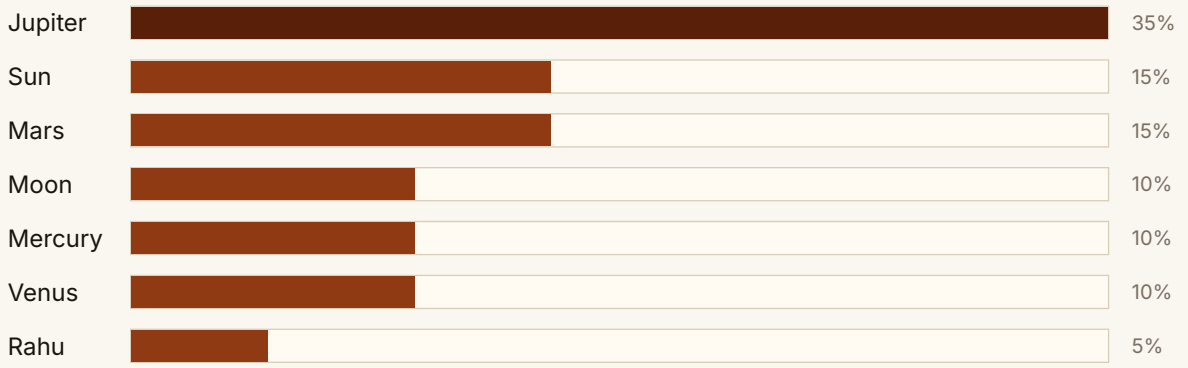

The Kinds of Work That Suit You

Which field is right for me?

THE SHORT ANSWER

Jupiter-type work suits this chart best: teaching, law, finance and guidance.

Every method in this report casts votes for kinds of work: the livelihood planet, the planets in the 10th, the 10th lord, the Amatyakaraka, the D10, the Karakamsha and the Nadi links. Most votes come from a planet, and each planet stands for a family of related work. The bars show how much of the chart's career vote each planet carries.

Each planet's share of the 20 vote weight that planets cast for kinds of work; the longest bar is the leading planet, and the darker bars are the families named below.

Jupiter-type work

With 35% of the career votes, Jupiter-type work (teaching, law, finance and guidance) is a real pull in this chart. Read the fields below as one family: they share a temperament, so the right one is the one that also fits your interests and training.

WORK OF THIS KIND

- Teacher and professor
- Government teaching
- Banking
- Spiritual and dharmic work
- Judiciary

THE VOTES BEHIND IT

- livelihood planet: Jupiter, weight 3
- a planet in the 10th from the main lens: Jupiter, weight 3
- Nadi: Saturn's dispositor: Jupiter, weight 1

> BASIS
>
> - Jupiter-type work: 35% of the career votes, from 3 votes

These are tendencies, not a verdict on one job. A planet points to a family of work that many fields share, so this chapter names families rather than ranking single fields; deity and element votes colour the reading but belong to no planet.

Test the family with real work before committing: an internship, a project or a conversation with someone in one of its fields will tell you more than any list.

CHAPTER 22 · TIMING AND RISK

Decision Windows Calendar

When will I be promoted?

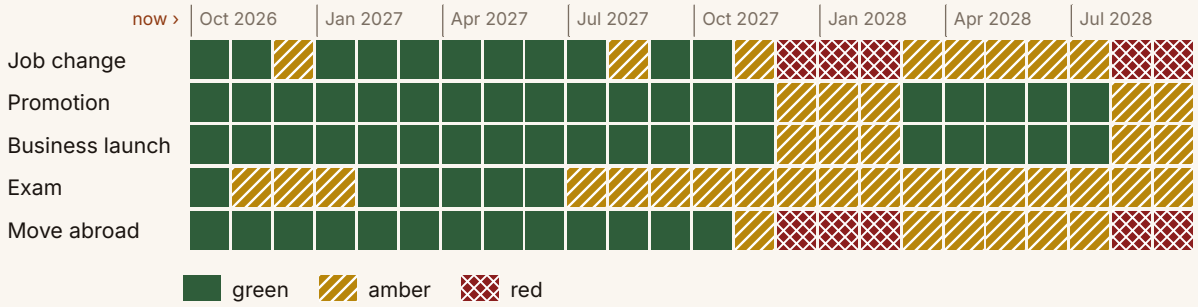

Should I change jobs, and when?

When should I sit a competitive exam?

THE SHORT ANSWER

The first green window ahead is for a job change, Oct – Nov 2026.

Each row below is one decision and each cell one month. Green means the running dasha period and the slow planets both support that decision; amber means one of them does; red means neither does, or a caution is active. Use green to act, amber to prepare, and red to hold.

One cell per month for the next 24 months.

Job change

The next green window for a job change is Oct – Nov 2026. Use the months before it to update your record, speak to the people who hire, and have offers in hand when it opens.

BASIS

- Rahu-Mars antardasha (Sep 2026 – Oct 2027): score +5.5, strong

Promotion

Promotion has a green window in Oct 2026 – Nov 2027. That is the time to put your case for advancement, with your work already on record.

Caution periods

These are the periods with a caution in force. They are not bad times for everything; they are times to avoid irreversible career steps and to protect what you have. Chapter 24 covers each in detail.

BASIS

- Caution: an AD of the 8th or 12th lord while the 10th is afflicted, Jan 2030 – Sep 2034 (severity 2)

What to do with this

Plan each decision around its next green window and prepare in the amber months that lead up to it. For a closer look at a single year, the Varshaphal report works month by month.

How the windows are made: a month is green when the running sub-period supports the decision and Jupiter or Saturn, with enough bindus, touches the houses it needs, with no caution active; amber when one of the two holds; red when neither does or a serious caution is active. The first 24 months are read month by month, the years after that quarter by quarter. A quarter takes the grade most of its months have, so in those years a window or a caution can open or close a month or two before or after the date that drives it.
